2020 L.A. Summer Camp Guide

We're assembling a HUGE online Summer Camp Guide complete with articles, information, and related content to help L.A. area parents plan their summer and find a great camp for their kids. The Guide comes out January 1. We anticipate dozens of camps will advertise in the Guide, so even if you don't do any other advertising with us, you must get listed in our 2020 L.A. Summer Camp Guide!

The regular price to participate in the Guide is $750. Sign up by Friday, Dec. 13 for a 50% discount. That means the price is just $375 for tons of value & online advertising exposure!

- Banner ad with descriptive caption & "Learn More About this Camp" link. (You can create your own banner or we can design one for you.)
- Your own dedicated page on lasummercamps.com, devoted exclusively to your camp. Include much text as you want plus three pictures & video.
- Link your banner & caption to your camp's website or your own page on our site, your choice

Following are two (2) banner ad examples so you can see what yours might look like when listed in our 2020 L.A. Summer Camp Guide.

The first camp, "Got Game," decided to link its banner and associated caption to its own website. The second camp – "Summer Day Camp at the Beach" – chose to link its banner and text to its own dedicated page on our site. You can decide for yourself what makes the most sense for your camp. (We are happy to discuss the options with you.)
